

University Housing Services ~ Programming Learning Outcomes

Civic Engagement	Effectively collaborates with residential community members and engages in leadership opportunities
Civic Engagement	Act with an informed awareness of contemporary issues and their historical context
Civic Engagement	Understand and participate in residential, city, state, and federal civic events as well as service and volunteer opportunities
Civic Engagement	Display a sense of ownership and pride within the residential community and demonstrate positive social behavior
Civic Engagement	Develop awareness of his or her role and responsibility to become a productive member of the global community
Communication	Speak confidently in group and one-on-one settings, especially with people of prestige and people different from themselves
Communication	Comprehend, interpret, and analyze information from a variety of sources
Communication	Practice different components of communication (active listening, thinking critically and reflectively, and responding coherently)
Communication	Learn how communication can help navigate and strengthen interpersonal relationships
Communication	Express ideas and facts effectively in a variety of formats
Community Builder	Recognize and use the support networks provided from the community
Community Builder	Feel comfortable in their living environment
Community Builder	Get to know other residents in their community
Lifelong Learning	Utilize basic learning skills and be able to understand complex subjects
Lifelong Learning	Engage in critical inquiry and exploration
Lifelong Learning	Function independently and autonomously
Lifelong Learning	Develop independent living skills (cooking, financial management, cleaning, sewing, etc.)
Lifelong Learning	Exhibit knowledge of healthy life choices
Lifelong Learning	Continuously desire to gain knowledge and become actively engaged in new concepts and ideas
Multicultural Competence	Develop skills to foster meaningful relationships within and across cultures
Multicultural Competence	Build supportive and inclusive communities to promote individual and community excellence
Multicultural Competence	Encourage intellectual and personal growth including the ability to see many perspectives and draw individual conclusions
Multicultural Competence	Gain multicultural and global perspectives to influence personal values and actions
Multicultural Competence	Actively recognize the value of human difference
Values & Identity	Cultivate a personal understanding of spirituality and its role in individual and societal values
Values & Identity	Establish mutually rewarding relationships by exhibiting maturity, honesty, and respect
Values & Identity	Demonstrate self assurance and confidence
Values & Identity	Explore, develop, and clarify identity and personal values through reflection and activities
Values & Identity	Respect self and others

- Academic Development    Develop an understanding of one's academic potential
- Academic Development    Better utilize campus resources to reach academic goals
- Academic Development    Cultivate a sense of purpose within the institution, select a major field of study, and focus on academic achievement
- Academic Development    Identify and prepare for a career